The Buck Starts Here

By MR Alan M Dobzinski

Accountability Experts, Inc., United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . All too often today the word accountability conjures up negative images of fault, blame, even financial misconduct. Looks like some heads are gonna roll is a common response. No wonder accountability gets a bad reputation. Who would want to be held accountable, if it might result in decapitation? But, it doesn't have to be that way at all: -- There's a way to hold people accountable that makes them eager to come to work and eager to perform. -- There's a way to hold people accountable that enhances trust and respect between managers and employees. -- There's a way to hold people accountable that helps them come together as a team and produce the right results, no matter what. These ideas are at the heart of what we call The Accountability System—a professional, respectful, and effective method of getting things done and achieving results. Follow this proven system and you are on your way to less stress, more time and a better bottom line.
