SOME apology is due to the public for the delay of the second edition of this Epitome. The author hopes that the facts which are detailed in this preface, will be accepted as such. The reader will recollect, that frequent travelling, together with incessant engagements to promote the practical introduction of this system, leave but little leisure for writing or revising its theory; under all circumstances, the author hopes he will be found to merit the public favor, while persevering under a load of labor, opposition and persecution, which has rendered his work most arduous. In this pursuit great have been the personal sacrifices required of the author; but the goodness of the cause has stimulated him cheerfully to make them. Happily for the public, his efforts have been successful; and not only thousands of children are educating, but preparations are making for...
