Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this FULLY-UPDATED edition of The IN/OUT Question, journalist and entrepreneur Hugo Dixon explains why: We benefit from the EU's single market All alternatives to EU membership are worse We can solve cross-border problems like the refugee crisis better by working with the EU than going solo If we quit the EU, we may lose Scotland Free movement is, on balance, good for Britain Although the EU is frustrating, we can make it better. We should fix it, not nix it. Hugo Dixon is a journalist and entrepreneur. He worked at the Financial Times for over a decade, including five years running the Lex Column. He then founded Breakingviews, the global financial commentary business. He now writes a column on political economy for Reuters, Breakingviews and the International New York Times. Praise for The In/Out Question from Boris Johnson: Hugo Dixon is the Johnnie Cochran of the European Union - he has done a superb job of defending the indefensible!
