agency we have a means for detecting tuberculosis in a herd, and we can very readily clean up a herd. This work encountered a great deal of opposition, for the reason that the State had no compensation to offer for these cattle. It is interesting to know that in every instance where tuberculosis had been found on the post-mortem floors and the remaining herd visited and tested with tuberculin, evidence of the disease was found in the herd. In conclusion, I wish to say that by giving our State proper legislation, and by a continual and plentiful dissemination of proper literature to the stockmen and the farmers, thereby enlisting their hearty cooperation instead of their antagonism, and by the splendid aid of the agricultural press, progress in stamping out tuberculosis will be achieved. The following is a list of the bulletins of the Bureau of...
