Fellow-Citizens: A Society, of a very extraordinary character, was organized in the month of December last, in the city of Philadelphia, known and designated by the name of the National Anti-Slavery Society. The Society has published and sent forth to the world a Declaration of Sentiments, including the Designs and Measures of the Society, and the objects they propose to accomplish. According to this Declaration, the following sentiments, principles, and measures, are distinctly avowed: - We maintain, that in view of the civil and religious privileges of this nation, the guilt of its oppression is unequalled by any other on the face of the earth; - and, therefore, that it is bound to repent instantly, to undo the heavy burden, to break every yoke, and to let the oppressed go free. We further maintain, that every man...

Reviews

I actually started looking over this publication. It really is rally interesting throgh studying period. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
