But he wasn't prepared to clash with the one woman he'd secretly loved for years, Detective Callie Cavanaugh, whose job it was to find Rachel. And when tensions grew hot between them, Brenton knew he'd have one helluva fight on his hands . and in his heart. Every time the troubled single father touched her, kissed her, he made Callie's job that much harder. When this nightmare was over, how would she ever find the strength to walk away from this man and his precious daughter without wanting more? Cavanaugh Justice: When the law and passion collide, this family learns the ultimate trut~that love takes no prisoners! "She's a beautiful little girl." Brent felt as if his throat was constricting again. His eyes stung, and he didn't bother trying to blink back the tears. Would he ever see her again? "Yes, she is," he agreed quietly. His fingers tightened around the remote, but he made no move to stop the video. "I shouldn't be standing here, doing nothing. Thinking about eating. Thinking about-" His voice halted abruptly as guilt washed over his face. "Thinking about what?" Callie half expected him to say something about killing the man who'd done. this horrible thing. She was caught completely by surprise when he quietly confessed, "You.".
