Corrective Admonition for Restaurant Nose Blowers: Countering Patrons Who Are Rude with Their Sinuses in Eateries

By Percyvelle Pennington The Third

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .(NOTE: This book is comedy - do not take it seriously!): While the solution I offer to the growing problem of restaurant-patrons blowing their noses openly within public dinning rooms, is simple and that I could have easily stated within a single paragraph, this would be a lost opportunity. I say this because my example and solution for only one problem we may experience during our stay at a public eatery, is simply that. an example. I am using what might be the single most disgusting act that can be perpetrated but not hidden, by a fellow restaurant-patron, being that of dinning room nose blowing. My purpose being to set a type of standard for correction of similar problems. Certainly we could instead report undesirable behaviors to the staff of a food service establishment. We could simply ask them to speak to the offending patron, requesting that they desist their gross or offensive activity. My question however, would be to ask if this would be the best way to send corrective admonition? I think not. . (JUST A...
