Will I live or die? A major heart attack raised the question. In my mind an alarm went off signaling danger. Death is at hand. Now closer than ever before. My system shifted to an overdrive. Run, hide, get away. To where? Can I outpace death -- even now, in my condition post heart attack? I had been fearing death and had buried dying deep in my unconscious. I had built no defenses. No insulations. Now what I feared most was before me daring me to look it in the eye. Bedridden and drained from every ounce of energy, I could only lay there and ponder the preceding events. Earlier, the angioplasty in emergency room revealed two major blockage 95 and 97 . In my weakened condition only one stent is placed. To stent the other blockage required a waiting period of four weeks. I had no choice. The body needed time to regain enough strength to sustain the next procedure. The four weeks waiting period also meant a clear and present danger since the...
